PROSPECTS BETTER THAN LAST TIME, SAYS ATKINSON

“Things are looking better every minute for the party,” said Chairman Atkinson of the Republican Central Committee this afternoon. “Take, for instance, the fact that the anti-Brown men of last campaign are now back in the fold and are working for us; and they are good workers too.”

“In the last campaign the Home-Rulers were opposed to the Republican party. Now they are helping us, and that is best shown by the fact that they have endorsed half of our candidates.”

“There is no deviation from the party that I know about. We have a good administration, and it seems to be popular. It seems to me that the prospects ahead for the Republican party are as bright as they can be; but I still believe that everyone should keep up the work until the last minute.”

EQUALITY PRESIDENT ATTACKS CATHCART

“There are monkeys in the other political parties, waiting for the opportunity to climb and eat up all the butter after election.”

J. K. Nakookoo, president of the Equality Society, made the above statement at noon today from the soap box. He said that those who are working hard under the other political parties were expecting to see their candidates elected so that they could eat up the butter themselves. He said that the Equality Society was organized for the benefit of all the people, regardless of race, color or nationality. Its purpose was to see that every man was treated equally. At present those candidates who were connected with a party were given preference. The duty of this society was to elect good men.

Nakookoo attacked Cathcart because he did not appoint Hawaiians as his deputies; but that he got a mailman from the States and made him his deputy. There were competent Hawaiian lawyers such as the Long boys, Kalukou and Heen; but none of them were ever given positions under him. That proved that Cathcart was not treating the Hawaiians right. He urged the voters to give their support for Sheriff Lanke, J. K. Kalanauau, C. A. Long and all those who were endorsed by the Equality Society.

RECORD CARGO IS BROUGHT BY MEXICAN

What is thought to be the heaviest cargo of freight ever brought into Honolulu harbor is being landed this afternoon from the S. S. Mexicana of the American-Hawaiian Line. Twelve thousand tons was brought across the Pacific by the ocean Leviathan.

The Mexican's cargo consists of miscellaneous supplies, a large consignment of stock, and a quantity of fodder. Part of the cargo comes from New York, having been taken on board by the Mexican at Tehuantepec. The ship also took on board freight at Puget Sound and San Francisco. A half-day's mail was also brought from San Francisco.

The Mexican sailed from San Francisco on Sept. 22 and encountered fine weather all the way across the Pacific. Capt. R. M. Ripley is in command.

MISQUOTED AS USUAL

Bryan did not make his money in the practice of his honorable profession but in the newspaper business.

This is the statement made by A. G. M. Robertson last evening in his address at Emma Square. The morning paper quoted him as follows:

The speaker concluded by comparing the ability of the two presidential candidates, stating that Taft had been a success in whatever he had undertaken, while Bryan had made his money as a newspaper man and not honorably in his profession as a lawyer.

WATERFRONT NOTES

ALL REGULAR Inter-Island Navigation Company steamers will leave here on Tuesday (Election Day) as usual. Freight will be received tomorrow and Monday, but none will be received on Tuesday.

THE BARK Nuuau is expected here from New York City about the middle of December with a miscellaneous cargo for the Islands.

Japanese residents of the State of Washington plan to erect a statue to the memory of Commodore Perry on the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.
